Reach

CES Asia 2018 will serve as the premier event for the consumer technology industry in China. CES Asia showcases innovation across several vertical industries in the Asian marketplace while providing companies, from leading Chinese and global brands to startups, a platform to create partnerships, build relationships and reinforce their brand. Industry executives, global buyers, government officials, market analysts, retailers, media and a limited number of consumers from China will witness the latest products and technologies while celebrating the innovation that defines the industry.

Exhibitor Profile

Influential brands and innovative companies will use CES Asia 2018 to reach retailers, e-tailers, customers and partners and launch new products into the Asian market. From tech powerhouses to startups – manufacturers, developers and suppliers will showcase new products and services. CES Asia is the platform for creating strong business relationships with innovators. Exhibiting is limited to major brands and innovative companies.

Attendee Profile

Consumer technology industry executives from China and across Asia will see the power of CES Asia that fosters innovation and serves as the place for brands to position themselves to new and existing audiences, including: senior-level buyers, distributors, manufacturers, engineers, product designers, CTOs, CIOs and investment managers from global brands.
